Brief History

Zen Peacemakers had its beginnings during a street retreat on the steps of the United States capitol building one snowy January day in 1994. On May. 15, 1996 Bernie Rev.Tetsugen Glassman and Sandra Jishu Holmes decide to co-found a Zen Peacemaker Order. Maezumi Institute set up as an annex to the organization for study/practice center of the Zen Peacemakers, offering training paths,study programs, and hands-on internships. There are four study/practice tracks.
